Florida Conversations Lecture Series

2013 - 2014 Schedule

All events take place at the Tampa Bay History Center, in downtown Tampa’s Channelside district.

RODNEY KITE-POWELL
September 12, 2013, 6:00 PM - Thursday
D.P. Davis and the History of Davis Islands

TOM TOUCHTON
October 16, 2013, 6:00 PM - Wednesday
Behind “Charting the Land of Flowers”
An Inside Look at the History Center’s Latest Exhibition

LYNN MARVIN
November 21, 2013, 6:00 PM - Thursday
Panel Discussion: The Importance of JFK’s Visit to Tampa: A Look Back 50 Years Later (followed by film screening)

WILL MICHAELS
January 8, 2014, 6:00 PM - Wednesday
World’s First Airline: 100th Anniversary of the Tony Jannus Flight

BRENT WEISMAN
February 19, 2014, 6:00 PM - Wednesday
Florida’s Seminole Indians: Past, Present, Future

NICOLE STOTT
March 2014 (day & time TBA)
Suited for Space: An Astronaut’s View

Florida Conversations is free and open to the public. It is underwritten by the Tampa Bay History Center Endowment Fund at USF with media sponsorship from WUSF Public Broadcasting. The series is co-sponsored by the USF Libraries Florida Studies Center and the Tampa Bay History Center. More information and driving directions: (813) 228-0097 or http://guides.lib.usf.edu/flasc