Be a part of this lively discussion about the status and progress of LGBT rights in the United States at this signature event for the USF Libraries’ rapidly-growing LGBT Initiative. Featuring experts in the field:

Attorney Mitchell Katine

Based in Houston, attorney Mitchell Katine was local counsel for the groundbreaking Supreme Court case Lawrence v. Texas and has been a stalwart advocate for some of society’s most marginalized members. He is also a USF alumnus and was a founding USF Ambassador.

Commissioner Kevin Beckner

Multiple-term Hillsborough County Commissioner and champion for LGBT rights

USF Associate Professor Dr. Sara Crawley

USF associate professor in the Department of Sociology and gender and Women’s Studies scholar

Presenting sponsor: Also sponsored by: USF Libraries; USF CISOGL; USF Office of Diversity, Inclusion, and Equal Opportunity; USF College of Arts and Sciences; the USF Alumni Association; and Equality Florida.