Patron Code of Conduct		POLICY NUMBER P001
Original effective date:2003	Review date (s):2016
Category: <input checked="" type="radio"/> Patron Rights
Approved by: Library Faculty/Admin 8/11/16 Library Management 8/15/16	Library Dean Todd Chavez 8/16/16

PURPOSE & INTENT

This policy provides a standard of behavior expected of all library patrons and allows for it to be made publicly available so that patrons are aware of acceptable parameters for conduct. It is intended to complement the Student Code of Conduct (USF Regulation USF6.0021 Student Code of Conduct)

STATEMENT OF POLICY

All persons, by use of the library facilities, shall be deemed to have agreed to abide by the USF Student Code of Conduct.

The commission, aiding, abetting, attempting, or inciting of the following actions and behavior are not permitted in the library. Failure to adhere to these actions constitutes an offense for which a student or student organization may be subject to the student conduct process.

For a complete listing of offenses, processes, and/or discipline policies, please review the USF Student Code of Conduct (USF Regulation USF6.0021 Student Code of Conduct).
